A PRECIOUS DOCUMENT.

From the Columbus (Ga.) Sun and Times.] The following letter was found in the streets of Columbia immediately after the army of General Sherman had left. The original is still preserved and can be The original is still preserved and can be shown and substantiated, if anybody desires. We are indebted to a distinguished lady of this city for a copy, sent with a request for publication. We can add nothing in the way of comment on such a document. It speaks for itself:

CAMP NEAR CAMPEN, S. C., February 26th, 1895.

My Dear Wife: I have no time for particulars. We have had a glorious time in this State. Unrestricted license to burn and plunder was the order of the day. The chivalry have been stripped of most of their valuables. Gold watches, silver pitchers, caps, spoons, forks, etc., etc., are as common in camp as blacketc., are as common in camp as black-berries. The terms of plunder are as fellows: The valuables procured are es-timated by companies. Each company is required to exhibit the results of its operations at any given place—1-5 and first choice falls to the share of the Com-mander-in-Chief and staff, 1-5 to the corps commander and staff, 1-5 to field officers of regiments, and 2-5 to the com-pany. Officers are not allowed to join in these expeditions without disguising themselves as privates. One of our themselves as privates. One of our corps commanders borrowed a suit of rough clothes from one of my men and was successful in this place. He got a large quantity of silver (among other things an old time silver milk pitcher) DeSaussure at this place. DeSaussure and a very fine gold watch from a Mr. is one of the F. F. s of S. C., and was made to fork out liberally. Officers, over the rank of captain, are not made to put their plunder in the estimate for general distribution. This is very un-fair, and for that reason, in order to protect themselves, subordinate officers and privates keep back everything that they can carry about their persons—such as rings, ear-rings, breast-pins, etc., etc., of which, if I ever live to get home, I have about a quart. I am not joking—I have at least a quart of jewelry for you and all the girls—and some No. 1 diamond rings and pins among them. General Sherman has silver and gold enough to start a bank. His share in gold watches

But I said I could not go into particu lars. All the general officers and many besides, have valuables of every description down to embroidered ladies pocke handkerchiefs (I have my share of them too.) We took gold and silver enough from the d-d rebels to have redeemed their infernal currency twice over. This (the currency) whenever we came across it, we burned, as we considered it utterly

I wish all the jewelry this army has could be carried to the "Old Bay State." It would deck her out in glorious style; but alas! it will be scattered all over the North and Middle States. The damned niggers, as a general rule, pre-ferred to stay at home—particularly after they found out that we only wanted the able bodied men, (and, to tell you the truth, the youngest and best looking women.) Sometimes we took off whole families and plantations of niggers, by way of repaying the secessionists. the uscless part of these we soon manage to lose-sometimes in crossing riv-

Tell Sallie I am saving a pearl bracelet and earrings for her. But Lambert got the necklace and breast pin of the same set, I am trying trade him out of them. CONFESSION OF A MURDERER Last Statement of a Traitor.

From the Indianapolis Daily Herald.] Indianarolis, September 29 — With the permission of a generous public, the undersigned would make this confession undersigned would make this contession of his sins, crimes, treasonable acts and misdemeanors, that the minds of the populace may be at rest. Having been charged with the marder of the President, the killing of several soldiers, etc., perhaps it is best that the truth should be known, as follows:

I began my infamous career July 27th, 1817, when I murdered, in cold blood, the McRay family, in New Jersey. On this occasion I murdered seven men and wounded the dog. realizing four dollars and a shilling. In 1827 I shot a minister in Boston dead, for saying that Christ died for sinners, when the Bible are the still lives. In 1829 I murdered christ died for sinners, when the Bole says He still lives. In 1829 I murdered my grandmother with a coffee-mill, for her gold spectacles. In 1830 I poisoned a district school with arsenic, filling ninety-two innocent graves. I killed General Taylor, and attempted to poison Washington in 1857. Buchanan in Washington, in 1857. I strangled John McCord, killed Colonel Colt, induced John Brown to die in his

Virginia loveliest, and murdered Jenkins in Kansas for a bit of pleasantry. In 1861 I first attempted the life of the late lamented Lincoln, but he saved himself by adopting a disguise. I killed Burdell, and tried to stab Anna Dickinson, but her friend Fred. Douglass saved her life. During the war I killed seven hundred soldiers at one shot with a single barreled revolver, mobbed over two hundred printing offices, destroyed nearly ten thousand lovely girls, and maimed for life an equal number of soldiers wives. In 1864, I again murdered Mr. A. Lincoln. I also murdered the Coosa family in Obio; tried to shoot President Johnson in Indianapolis; tried to buck his most excellent and virtuous excellency, Governor Morton, off a railroad track, but failed. I have now over twenty thousand innocent per-sons repining for the bloody consummasons repining for the bloody consumma-tion of my villainies, and with these are a few old men, just released from bastiles, on whom I first practiced my hellish arts before engaging in the wholesale work as above noted. The Radical newspapers, timid old maids, pasture hunting ministers, and especially the members of Brownlow's wandering ne-gro ministrel troups will please rublish gro minstrel troupe will please publish this with their statement of my villainies, as the partial confession of The traitor and murderer,
